

AMENDED LEGISLATION IN VICTORIA RE THE SALE OF CATS AND DOGS

It is now a requirement under the Victorian Domestic Act 1994 that all cats and dogs be microchipped prior to being sold or given away.

Under the Act a person must not advertise, or cause to be advertised, a dog or cat for sale unless:

- The advertisement includes the unique number contained in the microchip contained in the prescribed permanent identification device implanted in the dog or cat.